THE UNIVERSITY AT CHAPEL HILL

THE UNIVERSITY OF NORTH CAROLINA is the oldest state university in the United States, a member of the Association of American Universities, and an institution dedicated to training of students in many facets of cultural, scientific and humanitarian service to mankind.

The Consolidated University comprises the University at Chapel Hill, North Carolina State College at Raleigh and Woman's College at Greensboro.

The University at Chapel Hill is composed of 14 colleges and schools. More than 70 academic departments are included in the schools, and there are numerous institutes and other academic-affiliated organizations. The student body numbers approximately 8,500 and there are over 1,000 full-time and part-time faculty members.

The University is approximately the geographic center of the state, and the campus which has been carefully cultivated from the botanical and landscaping points of view is considered one of the most beautiful in the world.

The physical plant of the University embraces about 1,700 acres and around 100 buildings. The University was authorized by the North Carolina Constitution of 1776, chartered in 1789 and classes began in 1795.

The University has long been strong in liberal arts and the humanities, in law, and in the sciences. In recent years the teaching, research and service excellence in sciences has been demonstrated in the grants and awards by foundations and by the government and others for research in nuclear physics, gravitational physics, chemistry, and in other sciences.

The Division of Health Affairs, a unique and complete institution for betterment of health services to North Carolina's nearly five million people, is close by Kenan Stadium. It is comprised of five schools and a teaching hospital. The schools are: School of Medicine, School of Pharmacy, School of Public Health, School of Dentistry, School of Nursing.

The most recent and spectacular acquisition of the University is the Univac 1105 Data Automation System which ushers in for North Carolina and the South the new era of automation.

The University, in addition to a complete undergraduate and program of graduate and professional studies also has certain special programs which have won more than ordinary renown. These include the Institute of Government, an organization providing special opportunity for study, training and research in grassroots government and for state government; the Carolina Playmakers; the Institute for Research in Social Science; the Morehead Planetarium; the Ackland Art Museum; the Psychometic Laboratory; the Institute of Fisheries Research (located at Morehead City); the University of North Carolina Press; and the Institute of Statistics.

The University also includes the Communication Center which has as a component the educational television station, WUNC-TV. The Louis R. Wilson Library is one of the largest in the South, with over 900,000 volumes. The School of Business Administration has a broad range of courses, both for graduates and undergraduates, plus an active extension service and a nationally-known program for management executives. The Extension Division provides enormous services.

CHARLES P. (Chuck) ERICKSON
Athletic Director

A NATIVE of Oak Park, Ill., Chuck Erickson has been connected with athletics at the University of North Carolina in one way or another for more than 30 years.

He first came here as a transfer student from the University of Wisconsin. He was a star halfback at Carolina on squads that were noted for fine backs. He also lettered in track.

Following his graduation with a B.S. degree in 1931, Erickson entered business for two years before returning to Chapel Hill to work in the athletic department. He first served as assistant graduate manager of athletics, engaged in field work as a fund raiser and also had a hitch of coaching and scouting.

Then came a tour with the Navy as a lieutenant commander, following which he was named Assistant Athletic Director, working with Mr. Robert A. (Coach Bob) Fetzer.

When "Coach Bob" retired in June of 1952, Erickson was named to succeed him. He has served in this capacity since then.

Chuck Erickson has made many great contributions to Carolina and its athletic program.

Golf is a hobby and particular love. Doubling as golf coach for many years, he turned out four conference championship teams. He has had several individual conference winners and one national champ in Harvie Ward who also won the USGA title twice and the British Amateur. He is a former president of the National Golf Coaches Association.

His interest in golf was responsible for the construction of UNC's fine 18-hole course and clubhouse, gifts of his longtime friend, Mr. A. E. Finley.

Chuck is married to the former Mildred Wanell and they have a daughter, Susan, now in college.

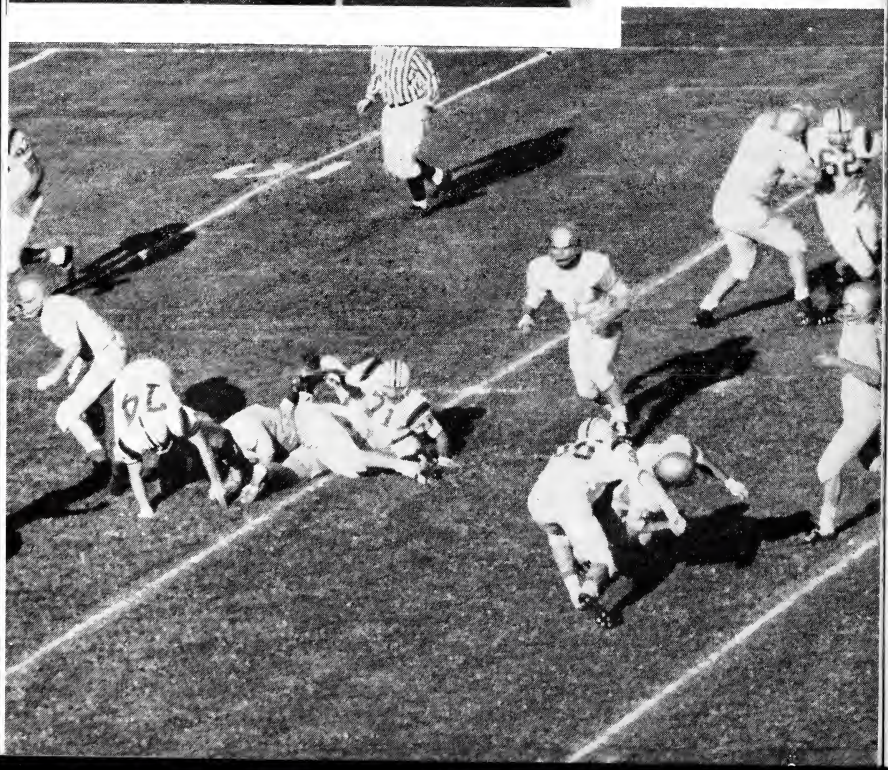
Coach
JIM HICKEY



JIM HICKEY
Head Football Coach

JAMES BENTON HICKEY was named head football coach at the University of North Carolina in July, 1959, following the death of Jim Tatum. He had been on Tatum's staff for three years, being a member of the original group Tatum appointed when he came here from Maryland.

Thus, Hickey is beginning his third season as head man of the Tar Heels. Hickey's first Carolina team had a 5-5 record, finishing strong with smashing victories over Duke and Virginia. His 1961 team had a worst fate, played up and down football and finished with a 3-7 record. The bright spots were another win over old rival Duke and the first victory a North Carolina team had ever posted against Notre Dame.

Hickey, 41, was head coach at Hampden-Sydney College for five years (1951-55) before he came to Chapel Hill. He was athletic director the last four of those five years. Hickey had an imposing record at Hampden-Sydney with 27 wins, 11 defeats and four ties. His teams won two Mason-Dixon Conference championships and Hickey twice was named Virginia "Coach of the Year."

Hickey did his first coaching at John Marshall high school in Richmond, Va. He went there in 1947 and was head coach four years. His record was 27 wins, 11 defeats and two ties.

The Tar Heel coach was born on Jan. 22, 1920, at Springdale, Pa. Springdale is a town fifteen miles outside of Pittsburgh and in an area celebrated for fine high school football players. George Barclay, Bud Carson, Dick Buck, Paul Severin and Harry Montgomery, some of Carolina's past football greats, all lived within seven miles of Hickey's home.

In high school Hickey won monograms in football, basketball and baseball. He made the WPIAL all-district team in both football and basketball.

Jim entered the College of William and Mary in the fall of 1938. He graduated with an A.B. Degree in history in 1942. At William and Mary he was a three year letterman in football and, in his senior year, went out for basketball and made the starting team.

Hickey was coached by Carl Voyles at William and Mary. He weighed only 155 pounds but was considered a fine back, noted for his speed and cleverness. Throughout his college career he was sort of a "utility man" in the backfield, playing tailback, wingback and occasionally even blocking back in the single wing system.

After finishing William and Mary, he entered the Navy, trained at Notre Dame and Columbia and had 2½ years service on a destroyer overseas. He was discharged in December, 1945, as a full lieutenant.

In April, 1945, he was married to the former Pat Foss of Wooster, Ohio, who was a student at William and Mary when he was in school there.

The Hickeys have four daughters, Lynne, 2; Anne, 6; Sue, 13; and Jill, 15.

Emmett Cheek

Assistant Coach

Emmett is an all-business football coach, hard working organizer and perfectionist in his trade.

Day in and day out, year-round, he is plunged in his extensive football chores, which include primarily tutoring defensive ends on the practice field and taking general charge of the administrative work in the football office.

After serving his army hitch, Chapel Hill native Emmett was a superior lineman under Carl Snavely on some of his great teams here. He was also a long-ball hitting catcher with the baseball team. He received his M.A. degree in Physical Education and has made coaching his life's work.

The 42-year-old Cheek served as line coach and baseball coach at Guilford College in 1949 and 1950. Then he was called to Maryland by Jim Tatum and was associated with Tatum there and here until the latter died in 1959.

Emmett is married to the former Mary Sue Moore of Greenville, N. C., and they have one son.

Fred Tullai

Assistant Coach

As far as can be determined, Fred Tullai owns one of the best-heard voices in Chapel Hill. His barks on the practice meadow, where he mainly teaches the tricks to the offensive linemen, have seldom had to be repeated.

Fred moved here with the late Jim Tatum in 1956, was freshman coach his first year, and has been a varsity man since. Like all his colleagues on the Carolina staff, he was a standout collegiate performer on the grid. At Maryland (graduate of '55) he was one of the Atlantic Coast Conference's top linemen (both center and guard) for three seasons.

Tullai got into coaching as a student at Maryland in 1954 when he was forced into a red shirt as the result of an injury. Coach Tatum designated him to work with the freshman linemen. Tatum was so impressed with his work that he selected Fred to come along with him to Chapel Hill where Tullai for the first time became a full-time coach.

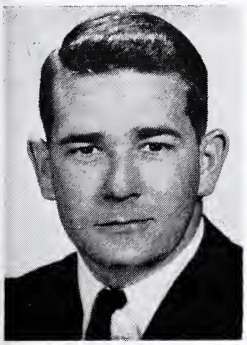
Born in Essington, Pa., on Feb. 20, 1930, Fred is married to the former Twila Bender of Wakeeney, Kansas. They have a young daughter and son, the latter named James Moore Tullai after Coach Tatum.

Bud Carson

Assistant Coach

Leon (Bud) Carson is an intense young man, so dedicated to his job that he suffers great agony when things go wrong.

Bud, a Carolina graduate of 1952 who starred on Tar Heel teams (primarily as defensive deep man) from 1948-51 under Carl Snavely, was born April 28, 1930, in Freeport, Pa., an area from which so many fine football players have come.



After graduating from Carolina, he joined the Marines and played on the Quantico team two seasons before beginning his coaching career.

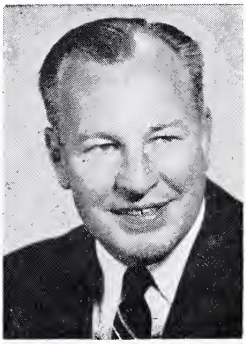
Three years as a successful high school coach at Scottsdale, Pa., was enough to move the late Jim Tatum to tap Bud for an assistant's post here when Eddie Teague moved to The Citadel. He is now in his third season on the varsity staff, having guided the freshman team to a fine season in his first year here. Carson is also a scout and a particularly effective talent recruiter in his home area.

Bud is married to the former Jean Hetrich of Natrona Heights, Pa., and they have a daughter and a son.

George Barclay

Freshman Coach

North Carolina's first All-America football player and now a foremost citizen of Chapel Hill—that's George Barclay, who is enjoying a combination of work that makes him a happy man. He has a thriving oil and gas business in which he is active except during the football season.



Barclay, a University graduate of 1934, is considered one of the finest guards ever to play here. Prior to college this native of Natrona, Pa., was a great star at Kiski prep. He became an assistant coach at Oberlin College after graduating, and then was an assistant at Dartmouth, V.M.I., and Maryland before being named head coach at Washington and Lee, where he had a fine record.

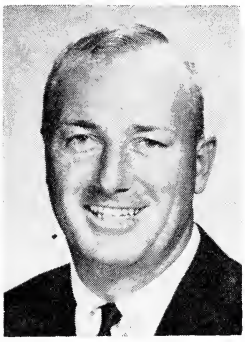
George gave up this head post to return to Chapel Hill as an assistant to Carl Snavely. In 1953 he was made head coach. He was succeeded in 1956 by the late Jim Tatum and went into business. Tatum, a close friend with whom he had worked at Maryland, prevailed on him to join his staff as an assistant on a part-time basis. He took a "year's leave" as an assistant at Tulane last season.

George was born on May 24, 1910. He is married to the former Maryellen Holbrook of Van Wert, Ohio. They have two daughters.

Joe Mark

Assistant Coach

Not many smiles are more captivating than the one ubiquitously displayed by Joe Mark, who was summoned to North Carolina in 1959 when Jim Hickey had a vacancy on his staff upon becoming head coach.



Joe came here from his (and Hickey's) alma mater, William and Mary, where he was an Indian star as blocking back and guard and co-captain in 1950, graduating in 1951. Hickey made him freshman coach (4-1 record) at first; he now starts his second season as a varsity assistant.

His current duties entail being head scout and purchasing agent and supervisor of equipment in addition to his coaching chores.

Mark, 29, came here with a good coaching background. He first was an assistant at William and Mary in 1953 as a graduate student after a hitch in the service. He played service football at Fort Eustis, Va.

Joe returned to William and Mary in 1956 and was on the Indian staff for three seasons. He is married to the former Faith Ann DeBolt of Hampton, Va., where he also was born. They have a son and daughter.

Bob Thalman

Assistant Coach

Someone has remarked that if James Cagney ever needed a stand-in, he should go to Robert J. (Bob) Thalman, to whom the movie figure does bear more than a remote resemblance.

Thalman, short, muscular and personable, joined Carolina's coaching staff in the spring of 1960, then directed a good freshman team through a sometimes hard luck season (2-3). He moves onto the varsity staff this year in Jim Hickey's rotation system.

Bob for four years was football coach and athletic director at Hampden-Sydney, where he was associated with Hickey, before he came here. His teams won 26 games while losing nine and tying one. His 1957 group won the Mason-Dixon conference title.

Before that, Thalman, 38, and a native of Wheeling, W. Va., was a successful high school coach.

A 1948 graduate of the University of Richmond, where he was a star guard, Thalman played two years of professional football. He is married to the former Mary Elizabeth Schnupp of Wheeling, W. Va. They have four children, two boys and two girls.

Vito Ragazzo

Assistant Coach

Newest addition to Carolina's football coaching staff and a man of considerable good humor, is Vito Ragazzo. He joined the staff before spring practice and has been working primarily with the ends.

As an end himself at William and Mary in the late 1940s, he was one of the nation's top pass receivers. Vito is a native of Aflex, Ky., and comes here from Virginia Military Institute where he had coached since 1956. During that time V.M.I. had some of its finest teams.

At William and Mary, Ragazzo set a national collegiate pass receiving record in 1949 and graduated from that institution in 1950. He played and coached for the Hamilton Bears of the Canadian pro league before going to V.M.I. He also coached a year of high school football at Vinton, Va.

Carolina's new assistant coach, who has made a fine impression with his work during off-season practice, is 33 years old. He is married to the former Betty Roberts of Roanoke, Va., and they have two children, a boy and a girl.

Ernie Williamson

Executive Secretary, N. C. Educational Foundation, Inc.

If there ever was a man perpetually on the go, he would have to be Ernie Williamson. Ernie's credentials: a member of the coaching staff, a talent recruiter, and executive secretary of the North Carolina Educational Foundation, Inc.

Since his birth on Sept. 9, 1922, in Crewe, Va., Ernie has grown into a giant of a man, a factor which helped make him a tremendous tackle at Carolina in the one season of college football (1946) he played under Carl Snavely. He was lured away to play professional football and had tenures with Washington and Los Angeles before his career was cut short by a knee injury.

Ernie returned to Chapel Hill to complete his education (A.B. and M.A. degrees) and then went to the University of the South at Sewanee, Tenn., where he was an assistant football coach two years and head coach three years. He also handled wrestling and track. Then he was brought back here by the late Jim Tatum.

Married to the former Elva Smith of Lawrenceville, Va., Ernie is the father of a son and daughter. The former is a baseball Pony Leaguer and a frequent hunting and fishing companion of Dad.

John Lacey

Head Trainer

Holding the distinction of having been trainer of three national championship teams, football and lacrosse at Maryland and basketball at North Carolina, John Lacey is in his fifth year as head trainer here.

Dapper John, a native of Wallingford, Conn., has a wide background of training experience. He was five years at Maryland with the late Jim Tatum before coming here. Prior to that he was a trainer at Yale four years and also was a trainer with three professional football teams—the Chicago Rockets, New York Yanks and Baltimore Colts.

He attended high school in his home town and also prepped at Tilton Academy in New Hampshire. During World War II he had his first training experience at Camp Robinson Base Hospital at Little Rock, Ark., and studied at the Eastern School in New York under Dr. S. E. Bilik and the Junior College of Therapy at New Haven. He also was a student in the Yale University Department of Health.

Lacey was born on Aug. 28, 1917. He is married to the former Barbara Koch of Wallingford, Conn. They have no children.

Warren Morris

Assistant Trainer

A graduate of Iowa State Teachers College in 1954 and holder of an M.A. degree from Maryland (1956), Warren is moving into his fourth year as an assistant trainer at North Carolina.

Morris won college monograms in four sports, football, basketball, track and baseball after an illustrious high school athletic career in his home town, Boone, Iowa, where he was born on March 20, 1932. He also played service basketball and baseball at Fort Eustice, Va., and worked as a trainer there in the Special Service.

When he was stationed at Fort Meade he worked on the training staff at Maryland where he came to know North Carolina head trainer John Lacey, who nominated him for his job here.

Warren's sports background also includes a successful high school coaching career at the Algona, Iowa, high school. He coached football, track and baseball, in addition to serving as trainer.

He is married to the former Adel Herbst of Algona. They have two children, a boy and a girl.

Outlook for 1961

TWENTY-ONE lettermen, including fifteen who played pretty regularly on the first two units last season, are listed on the University of North Carolina's 1961 football squad.

This group will be supported by a half dozen very promising "redshirts" of last year and a few sophomores who appear capable of breaking in the lineup during their first season. All told, Coach Jim Hickey figures that "we are about as well off player-wise as last season. We have no quarrel with the personnel. We simply have to eliminate mistakes."

The Tar Heels of 1960 did not succeed in doing that except in three memorable games. They played magnificently to beat Notre Dame, the first time a Carolina team had done that in a long series. They were superb in upsetting highly favored Duke. And they carried on in the season's finale to wallop Virginia. The Tar Heels lost their other seven games, often with spotty performances.

Coach Hickey and his staff certainly do not expect a repetition of that season of "frustrations" during which the Tar Heels were so inconsistent, usually turning in one good half and a frightful other half. This is the third season for Hickey as head coach. He has aimed for hard-nosed, sound football. His admirers believe he is capable of getting it.

First team losses from 1960 were great center-linebacker Rip Hawkins, who was an All America candidate and might have made it, had the team fared better; ends John Schroeder and Mike Greenday; guards Fred Mueller and Frank Riggs; tackle John Stunda; and halfbacks Milam Wall and Moyer Smith. It seemed logical that Hawkins would be hardest to replace but the Tar Heels have in lettermen Joe Craver and Gary Truver two fellows who should take care of the job well.

Ends seemed to be a doubtful position before spring practice. But the current crop, headed by John Runco and Conrad Sloop, came around nicely in the spring. Guards are still questionable, but Jim LeCompte and Duff Greene, the first stringers are tops. "I think LeCompte is a real great lineman," says Hickey.

The team's strongest position could be the tackles. There are four lettermen and a non-letterman, Steve Serenko, held out last year, "who may be the finest in the lot."

"Much of the success of this year's team depends on the quarterbacking," says Hickey. He was pleased with the work and improvement of smooth operating Ray Farris in spring practice. And Ray will be backed up by a likely looking newcomer, Junior Edge, held out in 1960. Farris will be a senior. John Flournoy is an able returning letterman defensive quarterback.

The Tar Heels may come closer to having explosive halfbacks than in recent seasons. Letterman Jimmy Addison, Ward Marslender and Lenny Beck, along with "redshirt" Wally Dunham, have all shown flashes of "breakaway" ability. Soundest of the halfbacks, however, is Gib Carson, a fine, competent, all-around player.

Fullback is a strong position with the two top men the same as last year. They are Bob Elliott and Joe Davies, potent on both offense and defense. Elliott, who will co-captain the 1961 team along with Jim LeCompte, last season was the team's finest ground gainer, never lost a yard in compiling a 4.0 average.

ENDS

Lettermen Returning (3)—George Knox, John Runco, Conrad Sloop.

Lettermen Lost (3)—Mike Greenday, Jim Rice, John Schroeder.

DON CONSTANTIN, 5-11, 190, 20, Sophomore, Long Island, N. Y.—Played fullback and end at Huntington (L.I.) High, was moved to halfback last fall here as freshman, now at end . . . Caught two passes for 33 yards in Blue-White game . . . Won scores of prep honors in football and lacrosse . . . Industrial relations major.

BOB COWLES, 6-2, 190, 19, Sophomore, Jacksonville, Fla.—Played lot of freshman ball though not as a starter . . . Showed improvement in spring drills . . . Particularly effective on defense . . . Undecided on major.

JOE DAVENPORT, 6-2, 207, 21, Senior, Charlotte, N. C.—Did not play in 1959 and '60 . . . Adequate receiver, but defensive work needs attention . . . Progressed noticeably in spring practice . . . Studying business.

JOHN HAMMETT, 5-10, 200, 20, Sophomore, Concord, N. C.—A junior academically . . . Ran fullback as freshman in 1959 . . . Shifted to end next spring, didn't make game squad during 1960 . . . Ranked No. 3 after Blue-White game at left flank behind Sloop, should be ready . . . Business major.

GEORGE KNOX, 6-0, 220, 21, Senior, Salisbury, N. C.—Was shifted in mid-1960 from fullback to end in seemingly improbable move, but switch has paid off . . . One of three returning lettermen at end, was ranked No. 2 on left side after spring practice . . . Able pass receiver and hard runner . . . Pre-med student.

BOB LACEY, 6-3, 195, 19, Sophomore, Pelham, N. Y.—Outstanding all-around athlete . . . At Trinity-Pawling High, starred in football, baseball, track . . . In Blue-White game last spring, caught two passes for 31 yards . . . Was top freshman receiver last fall, hauling in several long ones . . . Standout field performer in track.

BILL LOPP, 6-3, 198, 20, Sophomore, Lexington, N. C.—After playing outstanding freshman ball at Carolina in 1958, transferred to West Point . . . Moved back to Chapel Hill last fall, has been eye-catching . . . Roughneck defensively . . . Considered excellent prospect.

GAYLORD RANDOLPH, 6-2, 195, 19, Sophomore, Kinston, N. C.—He and Jerry Spivey shared first team position on left side as freshmen . . . Tough defensively . . . Also played tackle, fullback in high school . . . Honorable mention All-America high schooler.

JIM RAY, 6-0, 187, 19, Sophomore, Hillsboro, N. C.—Was ranked No. 3 at right end after Blue-White skirmish . . . Probably fastest in pack . . . Tough to skirt defensively . . . Was first teamer as freshman . . . All-State at Hillsboro High, one of few Orange County natives to play for the Tar Heels.

JERRY ROWE, 6-2, 190, 19, Sophomore, Asheboro, N. C.—Was high school All-America . . . Missed spring drills with injured knee after fine freshman year . . . Plans to major in business.

JOHN RUNCO, 5-11, 192, 20, Junior, Arnold, Pa.—Probably top offensive end on team, considered excellent passing target . . . Happy surprise during 1960 season, catching 11 passes for 182 yards and 1 TD (a literal steal vs. Miami) . . . The likely starter on the right ("lonesome") flank . . . Majoring in industrial management.

CONRAD SLOOP, 5-11, 212, 22, Senior, Kannapolis, N. C.—Will likely start at left flank . . . Former halfback, is quick . . . Strong defensively, fast offensively . . . A starter in early games last year . . . Only two-letter man among the ends . . . Industrial relations major.

DANA WELLMAN, 6-1, 200, 20, Sophomore, Annandale, Va.—Played fullback with freshmen in 1960 . . . Moved to end in spring, where adapted creditably . . . Getting used to new position.

STEVE YATES, 5-11, 183, 19, Junior, Freeport, Pa.—Played sparingly at tail end of last season . . . Intercepted one pass . . . Was a freshman starter, a fine receiver . . . Ranked No. 2 right end at end of spring, should play a lot.

TACKLES

Lettermen Returning (4)—Ben Gallagher, John Hegarty, Tony Hennessey, Jim Shumate.

Lettermen Lost (1)—John Stunda.

VIC ESPOSITO, 6-1, 210, 20, Sophomore, Norfolk, Va.—Probably top freshman tackle last fall but slowed by injury in spring drills . . . Ranked No. 4 on right side, may get to play some in 1961 . . . Was all-everything as prep player.

BEN GALLAGHER, 6-1, 220, 21, Senior, Charlotte, N. C.—Nicknamed "Butch" . . . Will either start or be No. 1 reserve on right side . . . Owns two letters . . . Aggressive, mobile . . . Teammate of Ray Farris at Myers Park High . . . Majoring in business administration.

JOHN HEGARTY, 6-3, 220, 21, Senior, Village Green, Pa.—Two-letter veteran, battling Gallagher for starting position . . . Strong, agile . . . Highly popular with teammates, has rather dry sense of humor . . . Helps make tackle one of strongest positions on team.

TONY HENNESSEY, 6-3, 272, 19, Junior, Reading, Pa.—No one on team is more hefty or respected than red-headed Tony . . . Expected to be great at left tackle . . . Quick, clever, powerful, with pros on his trail . . . Plays a lot of handball and basketball on side . . . A bit difficult to navigate.

HENRY HODGES, 6-3, 223, 19, Sophomore, Washington, N. C.—Also red-headed, and equally fiery . . . Played good freshman ball, but needs experience to move into varsity . . . Appropriately, "Rusty."

RONALD KNICELEY, 5-11, 220, 20, Waynesboro, Va.—Unless he stubs his toe, may be Hickey's placekicking answer . . . Played behind Vic Esposito with freshmen last fall . . . Acquired long string of prep school honors . . . Appropriately, "Mule."

SAM LOFLIN, 5-8, 207, 21, Senior, Salisbury, N. C.—Moved to tackle this spring after seeing no action at guard in two years . . . He is shortest of all teammates . . . Noted for "submarining."

JIM NAUGHTON, 6-2, 220, 19, Sophomore, Long Island, N. Y.—Injured most of freshman season after playing behind Alderman at first . . . Also reinjured this spring, missing spring windup game . . . Probably won't be ready for varsity play yet . . . Also played center, guard in high school . . . Business major.

JIM SHUMATE, 6-2, 214, 22, Senior, North Wilkesboro, N. C.—As one of four returning lettermen tackles, he is slated for much action . . . Wound up No. 3 at end of spring, and is expected to rise a notch or two in the autumn . . . Is married, and well-liked around campus . . . Industrial relations major.

GENE SIGMON, 6-2, 220, 20, Sophomore, Newton, N. C.—Missed action in 1960, but underwent substantial improvement under the auspices of a red shirt . . . Was starting end as freshman but moved to tackle . . . Injured knee in spring drills, hopes to have it healed by fall . . . If does, should play . . . Education major.

HENRY TAYLOR, 5-11, 195, 21, Senior, Wilson, N. C.—High school standout but has played no varsity ball at Carolina . . . Has been moved from guard . . . Teammate of Jack Tillery in high school.

GUARDS

Lettermen Returning (4)—Duff Greene, Jim LeCompte, Benton McMillan, Jack Tillery.

Lettermen Lost (2)—Fred Mueller, Frank Riggs.

JIM ALDERMAN, 5-11, 225, 19, Sophomore, Coatesville, Pa.—Was No. 1 right tackle with freshmen . . . Switched to guard in spring and looked as if might come to see action in fall . . . Compact, swift . . . Voted most valuable lineman of high school team junior and senior years.

JERRY CABE, 5-10, 197, 20, Sophomore, Brevard, N. C.—Had excellent spring practice, wound up at No. 3 on left side . . . Sat out last season, should be ready now . . . Addicted to weightlifting . . . Also to being a good student . . . Pre-med.

HUGH COLVIN, 5-10, 217, 20, Sophomore, South Boston, Va.—Was a tackle as a greenhorn . . . Did not play last year . . . Impressed coaches in spring doings, will likely alternate with Jim LeCompte on right side this fall . . . Bespectacled off the field, but not on . . . Good student.

BRUCE GREENE, 6-0, 200, 21, Sophomore, Wynnewood, Pa.—Played none last year . . . A junior academically . . . Plagued with back trouble in past . . . Has good chance to play this season, being rated No. 3 on right side at close of spring . . . Was president of sophomore class . . . Political science major . . . Twin brother of . . .

DUFF GREENE, 5-11, 200, 21, Junior, Wynnewood, Pa.— . . . Who is a twin brother of Bruce Greene . . . Played first string freshman ball, and lettered in first year with varsity . . . Will likely lead off at left guard this season, though competition sticky . . . Political science major, currently planning career as a lawyer and politico.

CURTIS ISH, 6-0, 198, 19, Sophomore, Clifton, N. H.—Played No. 1 right guard with freshmen last fall . . . Found competition stiffer in varsity spring drills . . . Will likely keep to sidelines this season . . . Plans to be a veterinarian.

MOKEY LASSITTER, 5-11, 210, 19, Sophomore, Morehead City, N. C.—Played some as a freshman in 1960 . . . Has plenty of desire and looks to make varsity grade . . . He could make it.

JIM LeCOMPTE, 6-2, 220, 20, Senior, Gaithersburg, Md.—Co-captain . . . May be biggest guard in Atlantic Coast Conference . . . A one-time tackle and center . . . Should be a solid starter on right side . . . Speedy and aggressive . . . Only two-letter man among guardsmen . . . Plans coaching career.

BENTON McMILLAN, 6-1, 210, 21, Junior, Wilson, N. C.—Had a good spring practice and, as a letterman, should bolster right side considerably . . . Can also play end effectively . . . Fast and agile . . . Majoring in industrial relations.

JACK TILLERY, 5-10, 180, 21, Junior, Wilson, N. C.—Sometime-starter last season, should repeat role this go-'round . . . Ranked behind D. Greene after Blue-White game . . . Deceptive power and mobility, best hustler in ranks . . . Rough to root out . . . Is married . . . Pre-med.

LOREN WELLS, 6-2, 198, 19, Sophomore, Hendersonville, N. C.—Injury slowed him in freshman ball last fall . . . Has been since switched from center . . . Not headed for much, if any, action this campaign . . . But promising . . . Was teammate of QB Sandy Kinney at Hendersonville High.

CENTERS

Lettermen Returning (2)—Joe Craver, Gary Truver.

Lettermen Lost (1)—Rip Hawkins.

JOE CRAVER, 6-1, 214, 20, Junior, Shelby, N. C.—Coaches say he can be better than Rip Hawkins, who was great . . . Ranked a little ahead of Truver after spring practice . . . Quick, blankets his territory . . . Tackles hard, clean . . . High school All-America . . . Morehead Scholar, campus leader . . . Pre-med.

GEORGE ELLISON, 5-11, 207, 19, Sophomore, Danville, Va.—Converted from guard as freshman to pivot because of lack of personnel there . . . Needs experience . . . Active weightlifter . . . "Cricket."

RICHARD FELLMAN, 6-0, 215, 19, Sophomore, Long Island, N. Y.—Played first string freshman fullback last fall, moved to center in spring . . . Still learning peculiarities of the new position with deliberate haste . . . Should become good varsity player.

RAY PAULOS, 5-11, 190, 19, Sophomore, McKees Rocks, Pa.—Was second string left guard with freshmen last fall, injured last spring . . . Is probably destined for sideline duty this season in process of recovering . . . Of Polish descent . . . Unexplainedly, "Snuffy."

GARY TRUVER, 5-11, 184, 21, Senior, Freeport, Pa.—Will share the action with Craver this year . . . Coaches are high on his ability . . . Hits hard for size, though could profit from added weight . . . Has lettered both varsity years . . . Hopes injury jinx shies from him . . . Industrial relations major.

BOB ZABACK, 6-1, 203, 20, Junior, New York, N. Y.—Should see considerable relief duty in support of Craver and Truver . . . Tall and strong . . . Plays a lot of handball to stay in shape . . . Sharp in the classroom . . . Business major.

QUARTERBACKS

Lettermen Returning (2)—Ray Farris, John Flournoy.

Lettermen Lost (None).

GEORGE BOUTSELIS, 5-11, 184, 21, Sophomore, Harrisburg, Pa.—Looked promising in spring toil, running thrice for six yards and completing a pass for 13 . . . Excels as a runner . . . Ranked third offensively . . . Industrial relations major.

JUNIOR EDGE, 6-0, 202, 20, Sophomore, Fayetteville, N. C.—Will be offensive replacement for Farris this fall . . . Unusually poised and settled . . . Missed Blue-White game by joining baseball team (pitcher) last spring . . . Has coaches excited over punting, place-kicking abilities . . . Pharmacy major.

RAY FARRIS, 5-11, 178, 21, Senior, Charlotte, N. C.—Had outstanding, though sometimes frustrating, season in 1961 . . . Third leading rusher, top passer, leading punter and top scorer (6 TDs) . . . Ran 10 times for 29 yards and hit six of 21 passes for 136 yards in Blue-White skirmish . . . Punted seven times for 40.4 average . . . High-spirited, shrewd field general . . . Offense depends on him . . . President of senior class.

JOHN FLOURNOY, 5-9, 175, 21, Junior, Columbus, Ga.—Letterman . . . Defensive specialist, occupation: safetyman . . . Offensively, in Blue-White game, completed five of 14 aerials for 86 yards . . . Will mainly be substitute for Farris or Edge when ball changes hands . . . Business administration major.

SANDY KINNEY, 6-0, 183, 19, Sophomore, Hendersonville, N. C.—Established self as excellent passer as freshman last fall . . . A definite prospect . . . Cool-headed, husky, good runner . . . Business administration major.

JUD SPAINHOUR, 6-1, 185, 21, Junior, Lenoir, N. C.—Has not played last two years, but is slated for defensive activity this fall . . . Strong and quick on reaction . . . Safetyman, ranked behind Flournoy . . . Cocky and likes to play . . . Varsity baseball outfielder also.

LEFT HALFBACKS

Lettermen Returning (2)—Jim Addison, Gib Carson.

Lettermen Lost (2)—Skip Clement, Moyer Smith.

JIM ADDISON, 5-8, 178, 21, Junior, Durham, N. C.—Battling Carson and Dunham for starting assignment . . . Good pass receiver, fast and deceptive runner . . . Breakaway threat . . . Had 2.9 rushing average in 1960, returned four punts for 52 yards . . . Ran seven times for 20 yards in Blue-White game . . . High school All-America.

TOM BROOKS, 5-10, 177, 19, Sophomore, Lisbon, Ohio—Played a lot of freshman ball . . . Elusive scatback, very fast . . . Dash man on the track cinders . . . Outstanding in the classroom . . . Chemistry major.

GIB CARSON, 5-11, 176, 21, Senior, Freeport, Pa.—Should be Carolina's bread and butter man on the go . . . Second leading rusher in 1960 with 3.9 mark . . . Caught six passes for 40 yards . . . Has been bothered by hand injury in past . . . Smart runner . . . Averaged 6.2 yards as soph . . . Brother of Tar Heel assistant coach Bud Carson . . . Physical education major.

WALLY DUNHAM, 5-9, 180, 21, Sophomore, Winston-Salem, N. C.—Sat out last year . . . Had excellent freshman season, was leading scorer . . . Was eye-attracting in spring drills with breakaway stints . . . Terrific punter (6 for 42.7 in Blue-White game) . . . Ranked behind Carson at spring's close . . . Physical education major.

JIM EASON, 6-0, 191, 19, Sophomore, Hampton, Va.—Utility man as freshman, playing both halfback and quarterback . . . Played single wing tailback in high school . . . Possible standout of future.

GENE SHUFORD, 5-11, 180, 21, Junior, Lincolnton, N. C.—Has not played the past two years . . . Good speed . . . All-around skills . . . May get chance this fall . . . Son of former Tar Heel star . . . Pharmacy major.

RIGHT HALFBACKS

Lettermen Returning (2)—Lenny Beck, Ward Marslender.

Lettermen Lost (2)—Sonny Folckomer, Milam Wall.

LENNY BECK, 6-1, 186, 23, Senior, Long Beach, N. Y.—Will probably be starting right half . . . Fast, with good knee action . . . Averaged 3.4 yards rushing in 1960, and caught three passes for 105 yards in Blue-White game . . . Excellent defender, especially against passes . . . Business administration major.

DAVE HENRY, 6-0, 162, 19, Sophomore, Chapel Hill, N. C.—Emerged as starter by end of 1960 freshman season . . . Very fast, shifty, but is light . . . Could develop into valuable scatback . . . Morehead Scholar.

WARD MARSLENDER, 5-11, 175, 21, Junior, Washington, N. C.—Started 1960 season as No. 1 quarterback, but dropped to No. 2 behind Farris . . . Now has been moved to halfback to capitalize on running prowess . . . Broken field danger . . . Should also pose threat as runner-passer . . . Class officer . . . Pre-Med.

JOE McLAMB, 5-10, 189, 20, Sophomore, Clinton, N. C.—A freshman starter in 1959, but shoulder injury sidelined him last fall . . . And again last spring . . . Explosive runner, swift . . . Track dash man . . . Has good potential, may come around this year . . . Pre-Med.

BRECK REGAN, 5-11, 180, 21, Senior, St. Pauls, N. C.—Since freshman year, hasn't been with team . . . Returned to squad last spring . . . Is learning rapidly.

MILT SAFFELLE, 5-10, 184, 21, Senior, Alexandria, Va.—Standout high school player . . . Improved steadily and markedly on the sidelines last fall and also last spring . . . Needs defensive improvement.

ROGER SMITH, 5-10, 190, 20, Sophomore, Albemarle, N. C.—Played a little last season, looked good . . . Due for duty in 1961 . . . Turned in fine work last spring, was ranked No. 2 behind Beck . . . Marked by hustle, desire—trademark of brother Wade, co-captain in 1959 . . . Played single wing tailback in high school . . . Morehead Scholar.

FULLBACKS

Lettermen Returning (2)—Joe Davies, Bob Elliott.

Lettermen Lost (None).

BUDDY COZART, 6-0, 198, 20, Sophomore, Roxboro, N. C.—Freshman starter in 1959 . . . Sat out last season . . . Has chance of playing this year . . . Had three ranked ahead of him after spring practice, but could move up . . . Pre-Med.

JOE DAVIES, 6-0, 206, 21, Senior, Alexandria, Va.—Fourth leading rusher in 1960, with 3.9 average . . . Caught four passes, 57 yards . . . Good defensive linebacker . . . Will alternate with Elliott . . . Fast, smart . . . Is married . . . Fine student in School of Business.

BOB ELLIOTT, 6-1, 210, 22, Senior, Hendersonville, N. C.—Co-captain . . . Leading Tar Heel rusher last fall, with 4.0 average . . . Didn't lose a yard . . . Also scored four touchdowns, kicked 9 of 11 extra points . . . Missed most of spring practice with minor injury . . . Fine linebacker . . . Two-year starter . . . Transfer from University of Miami . . . Industrial relations major.

EDDIE KESLER, 6-0, 198, 19, Sophomore, Salisbury, N. C.—One of the more promising sophomores, outstanding back on the freshman team last fall . . . Ranked No. 3 behind Elliott and Davies at close of spring drills . . . Hard charger, fair speed . . . Good passer . . . High school All-America.

GLEN OGBURN, 5-10, 200, 19, Sophomore, Leaksville, N. C.—It's "Oggie" to some . . . Hard freshman runner last fall . . . Can also operate at quarterback and halfback . . . Moved to fullback this spring . . . All-Stater in high school . . . Probably needs more seasoning before active varsity work.

JOE ROBINSON, 6-1, 210, 20, Sophomore, Black Mountain, N. C.—Ran behind Cozart most of freshman year . . . Sat out last fall . . . Has been improving, but still needs more experience . . . Very likeable, widely befriended . . . Plans tentatively to go into social work.

BARRY WESTFALL, 6-1, 208, 19, Sophomore, Martinsville, Va.—Appropriately, the "Bear" . . . Promising prospect . . . High school All-America . . . Superb prep student: National Honor Society member, President of Key Club, ranked second in high school graduation class.

KENAN MEMORIAL STADIUM

A POET ONCE wrote: "In a natural valley about two thousand feet from the center of the campus of the University and just above the spot long known as the Meeting of the Waters, there is a natural amphitheatre, easily approached by paths that follow the lay of the land.

"The brook that flows through this valley has cut a ravine so that the floor of the stream is level and smooth and the banks rise with equal steepness on either side.

"Here is the site of Kenan Memorial Stadium. In the completeness and harmony of its appointments, the convenience of its seating, and the beauty of its design and location, Kenan Memorial Stadium is unique among the stadia of America."

The poet was right. Both students and old grads love this place. Often they come down long before game time and consort with the pines, dreaming and meditating, partaking of the silent joys and melancholy of wonderful nature. Then, they linger in the twilight, reluctant to depart and return to the workaday world.

The stadium, truly one of Chapel Hill's beauty spots, was a gift of William Rand Kenan, Jr., a distinguished and loyal son of the University of the Class of 1894, and constructed as a memorial to his mother, Mary (Hargrave), and his father, William Rand Kenan.

Construction was begun in November, 1926, and completed in August, 1927. The first football game played there was between Carolina and Davidson on Nov. 12. However, the formal opening and dedication did not take place until the game with Virginia on Thanksgiving Day. The Tar Heels won by 14-13.

The stadium, as originally built, seated 24,000. For many years, however, an ingenious arrangement for portable grandstands, used for all the games, has increased the capacity to 43,917 seats. On occasions even this capacity has been increased, and games with Virginia, Duke, Notre Dame and Texas have accommodated as many as 46,000.

On one side of the stadium is a guest box, used by Trustees of the University and other guests. The press box, of similar outward design, is located on the other side, directly opposite. Gifts from Mr. Kenan enabled a complete rebuilding of these structures in 1950. The field house, recently modernized, also was a gift of Mr. Kenan.

Plans have been drawn for additional beautification, especially on the approaches back of the field house where the Rams Club parking lot is located. Long range plans call for an enlargement of the stadium, with the substitution of permanent seats for the portables.

The stadium is picturesque and breathtaking when the weather is beautiful.

Used primarily for football, it also each year is the scene of twilight Commencement exercises. Many other memorable events have taken place there, such as band concerts and student assemblies when notables have visited the University to speak.

Justice In Hall of Fame

THE LATE William D. Carmichael Jr., once wrote: "Since the earliest days of civilization 'numbers' have held special significances in the lives of mankind . . .

"In North Carolina and to North Carolinians the world over, a never-to-be-forgotten number is 22 . . .

Folks who don't know the number of Apostles or the number of Books in the Bible can tell you about number 22. As long as there is a Chapel Hill the number 22 will mean Charlie Justice, the most thrilling athlete in the history of the University of North Carolina."

Too bad Billy Carmichael did not live long enough to see the incomparable Choo Choo, old 22, elected to the National Football Hall of Fame last spring. The University's vice-president and finance officer would have rejoiced. Billy idolized the young man with a boyish enthusiasm. The two were warm hearted, close personal friends during both Charlie's college career and even until Billy died last January.

Another of Charlie's intimates, Orville Campbell, collaborated on a song about him, a nifty ditty entitled "All the Way Choo Choo." Sportswriter Bob Quincy and author Julian Scheer wrote a beautiful book called "Choo Choo, The Charlie Justice Story." Realtor-photographer Hugh Morton took hundreds of compelling pictures of him. One of the most publicized football players in history, the Choo Choo made all the All-America lists, many magazine covers.

A brilliant high school player at his native Asheville, later a service star in the Navy, the little guy was sought by more than 50 colleges before he enrolled at the University of North Carolina in the winter of 1946. At the time Coach Carl Snavely's classic quip was "I hope he decides to come out for football."

He did. The first time he carried the ball in a practice game with Guilford in winter drills, he rambled 65 yards for a touchdown. Runs like that were to become his trademark. Charlie tiptoed across the moonbeams for 2,814 yards during his four-year career, passed and ran for 5,176 yards, punted for a 42.5 average.

Probably his finest performance was against Georgia in 1948 when he collected 304 yards in total offense (running and passing) for a national record. He also set two national career records, total offense and punting average.

Little wonder that he had the adulation of the public, converted into the largest crowds ever to attend Carolina's football games, a long string of sell-outs, or that he was named to the Hall of Fame the first year he was eligible.

The Opponents . . .

Carolina plays its usual 10-game schedule in 1961. Capsule information on these opponents appears on the following 10 pages.

One newcomer is on the Tar Heel schedule. Notre Dame has gone off for one year and has been replaced by Louisiana State, this game to be played in Chapel Hill on Nov. 11. Homecoming will be celebrated that day.

It's Dad's Day on Oct. 7, when the Clemson game will be dedicated to the fathers of students at the University, with special festivities for dads of Carolina players.

High School Band Day and Law Alumni Day are features of the Tennessee game on Nov. 4.

Other home games are the opener with N. C. State, Sept. 30, and the finale with Virginia, Dec. 2.

In away games the Tar Heels meet Maryland, South Carolina, Miami, Duke and Wake Forest.

All-time records with these teams (NC score first): N. C. State (35-9-6); Clemson (4-5); Maryland (15-11-1); South Carolina (25-7-4); Miami (3-2); Tennessee (9-20-1); L.S.U. (1-1); Duke (20-23-3); Wake Forest (38-17-2); Virginia (35-27-3).

NICKNAME: Wolfpack
COLORS: Red and White
SERIES RECORD: UNC 35, N. C. State 9, Tied 6
SYSTEM: Slot-back and Winged-T
CAPTAIN: Roman Gabriel

1961 OUTLOOK: Offensively the Wolfpack will be better in 1961, but whether the loss of key defensive personnel can be replaced is doubtful. With All-America quarterback Roman Gabriel back for his senior year, Wolfpack fans tend to be optimistic, especially since some fine halfbacks are expected to move into prominance as sophomores. Tackle, guard, fullback and quarterback will be Wolfpack strong points.

CO-CAPTAINS: Ron Andreo and Calvin West

1961 OUTLOOK: Coach Frank Howard is looking for an improved team as well as a better record in 1961. Losses were slim from the '60 squad with just four players not returning from the first 33. End should be a strong position in '61 with center and fullback adequate. Joe Anderson is the only returning quarterback with varsity experience and his chief relief will come from sophomores.

CO-CAPTAINS: To be selected

1961 OUTLOOK: Coach Tom Nugent predicts that the '61 edition of the Terps will be his best yet. The team will have greater speed, overall, and they will be stronger at tackle, guard, and center, depth wise as well as starting regulars. The passing game will be a big part of the Terps' offense this fall, and the big target will be All-America candidate Gary Collins.

CAPTAIN: To be elected

1961 OUTLOOK: The Gamecocks again can depend on a rugged line that is a good two-deep despite loss of starting senior line. Backfield is fast but comparatively light, and success of team will depend on some "unknown" halfbacks shaping up quickly in the fall. Chief weakness appears to be lack of punter. New head Coach Marvin Bass will play pro-type game from Slot formation.

1961 OUTLOOK: Miami's fortunes could be on the uprise this season —if a depth problem can be solved. Sophomores—particularly in the interior line—must come through to give Miami the kind of depth it will need. There will be more emphasis on passing because of two whizbang sophomore quarterbacks, George Mira and John Bennett. Their prime target will be All-America end Bill Miller.

1961 OUTLOOK: Tennessee's depth should be improved overall, but lack of experience at end and guard can cause trouble. Tackle should be strong if sophs Dick Evey and Ed Beard develop as expected. Glenn Glass, tailback, should be one of best backs in country. Fullback is well taken care of, with top three back. Blocking back is questionable and will depend on development in fall work.

1961 OUTLOOK: The sophomores who excited LSU fans last year are back, ready for a better performance. However, the key men from that rugged defense are missing. Returning to give defensive support are senior linemen, Roy Winston, an All-America candidate at guard, and tackle Billy Booth. More offensive support is expected to be generated by a more experienced line and a fast and explosive backfield.

1961 OUTLOOK: With no king-size performers available, Duke in 1961 will have to depend on light, fast and quick men. There are halfbacks available in quantity and quality. However, the linemen as a whole lack experience and are small. Plans are for Duke to use the "lonesome end" again this year.

CO-CAPTAINS: Ronald Gassert and Louis Martig

1961 OUTLOOK: Virginia expects to take several long strides on the way back under Bill Elias. Plans call for two lines of nearly equal strength and three backfield units for game action. The ball-carrying halfbacks will emerge as Virginia's main offensive strength. They include Carl Kuhn, Ted Rzempoluch, Bobby Freeman and Tony Ulehla, who had good rushing averages last year.

RETURNING LETTERMEN (22): E—Dennis Andrews, Joe Kehoe, Edward Menzer; T—Terry Duffy, Ronald Gassert, Jan Kamfjord, Bill Kanto, John Linn; G—Louis Martig; Bob Rowley, Emory Thomas, Turnley Todd; C—Bill Lang, Andy Moran; QB—Gary Cuozzo, Stanford Fischer; HB—Robert Freeman, Carl Kuhn, Ted Rzempoluch, Tony Ulehla; FB—Tom Griggs, Willis Williams.

PROMISING NEWCOMERS: E—Myron McWilliams; FB—Bruce Perry.

CHIEF LOSSES: FB—Fred Shepherd.

Carolina Radio and Television

All of Carolina's football games this fall, both at home and away, will be carried by the Carolina Football Network. Veteran announcer Ray Reeve is the play-by-play man for the network, which comprises some 60 stations in North Carolina, South Carolina and Virginia and is one of the nation's largest. Reeve was honored two years ago at a testimonial dinner, paying tribute to his twenty years of distinguished sportscasting. Bill Currie, famed for his light-hearted ad libs, does the color. Each home game is covered by a radio network representing the visiting team. National networks also frequently broadcast Carolina's games. Carolina frequently appears on national and regional television, and its own educational television stadium, WUNC-TV, covers the home games with delayed telecasts.

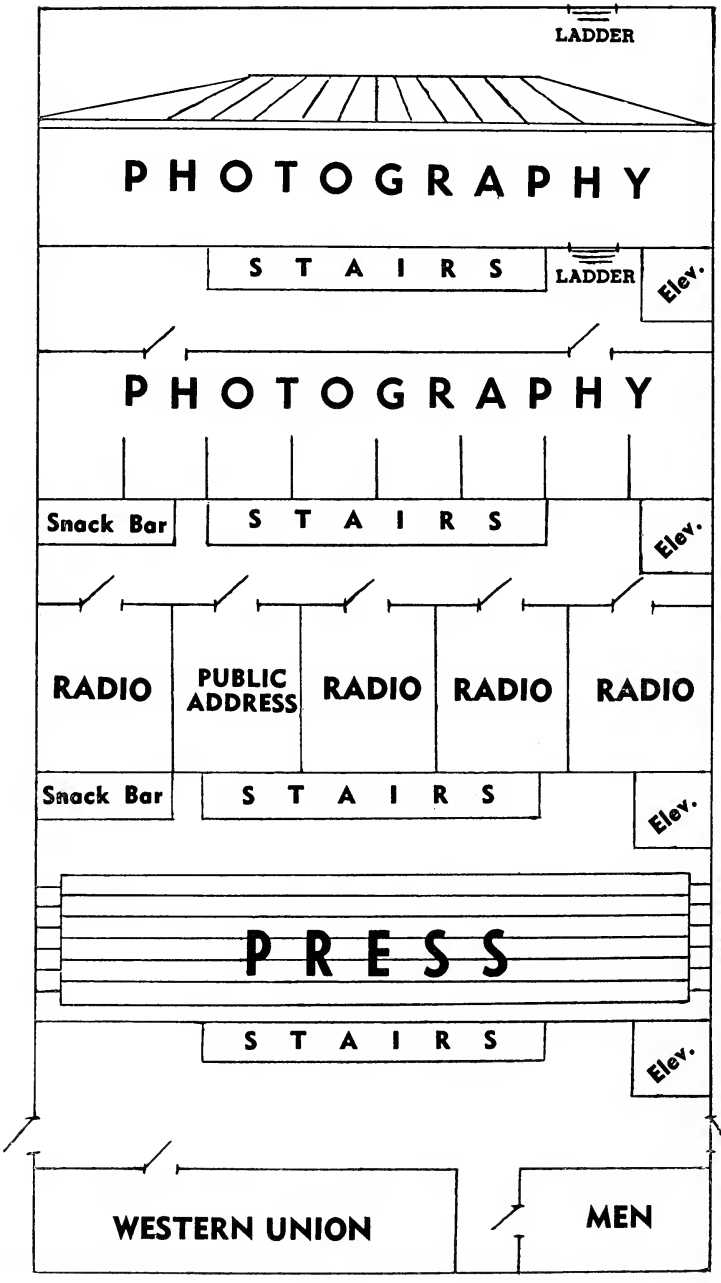
KENAN STADIUM PRESS BOX



North Carolina's Press Box

The University of North Carolina has, at Kenan Stadium, a modern, compact press box of unique design, outwardly of the same size and appearance as the guest box on the opposite side of the field.

On the ground level are a rest room, Western Union room, duplicating facilities and foyer.

The press box proper for reporters is located on the second level. There are seats for approximately 70 workers.

Three radio booths, a PA booth and a booth for the home team's coaches' telephones to the field are located on the third level. (Four additional radio booths and a booth for visiting team coaches' telephones are located in the guest box on the opposite side of the field.)

The fourth level is for photographers, both still and movie, and will accommodate 10 or more. Additional facilities for photographers are provided on the roof under canvas cover.

Snack bars are located on all levels except the ground floor. Sandwiches, hot dogs, coffee and cold drinks are available before, during and after the game.

Complete services are provided by our press box, which has received both awards—for facilities and services—made by the Football Writers Association of America.

There is an electric elevator from the ground floor to all levels, for hauling of photographic and other heavy equipment. Due to the design of the box, no elevator is needed for passengers.

Press credentials should be requested from the Office of Sports Information as far in advance as possible. These are customarily processed on Monday prior to each game. Reporters should arrange for wires with their home Western Union office.

Photographers are permitted to work on the sidelines, within the 30-yard limits at each end of the field. Photographer tickets admit to both the press box and sidelines.—Jake Wade, Chapel Hill, N. C. Office phone 942-4996, home phone 942-4975.
